

World History I Presentation Rubric

Name: _____

Topic: _____

*Points will be given for each of the following categories depending on how well you met the criteria.
Your final presentation score will be calculated by adding up your points from each category.*

Summary of Information

Did you synthesize important information to provide a good summary of the material during your presentation?

Points: _____/15

Application and Importance

Did you effectively present the importance, impacts, applications, and broader takeaways of the information so students understand how culture, society, government, etc. were affected?

Points: _____/15

Style of Presentation

Did you present clearly and with good projection, body language, etc.?

Points: _____/15

Did you actively engage with the class or were you mostly just reading to them?

Visuals

Did you effectively use visuals throughout your presentation to help your audience connect with what you were presenting?

Points: _____/15

Answering Questions

Were you prepared to answer questions given to you by your classmates?

Points: _____/10

Did you answer questions to the best of your ability and based on your research?

Time

Did your presentation stay between ____:00 and ____:00?

Points: _____/10

Did your presentation flow smoothly and not end abruptly?

Listening and Active Engagement

Did you give your full attention to every other student's presentation?

Points: _____/10

Did you take notes during other students' presentations to inform your questions?

Asking Questions

Did you consistently offer relevant questions to other presenters to help expand understanding of the presentation topics?

Points: _____/10

Did you give constructive feedback on presenters' presentation style, projection, body language, etc.

Additional Comments:

Total Points: _____/100

